This class brings you to the middle of heated political debates about the on-going transformation of Europe. Do Muslims constitute a significant demographic, intellectual and cultural component of Europe? Do they present immediate danger and threat of terrorism and violence? How do Muslims vote? What role do Muslim women play in European communities? From graffiti to politics, from creativity to violence. Muslim experience in Europe.