EUROP 435:
Culture & Identity in Post-Communist Europe

Professor Emily Schuckman Matthews
T/TH: 12:30-1:45pm, schedule # 21698

This course examines the social, economic and cultural transformations in Europe since the collapse of communism. Particular focus is given to the role of communism in daily life and the impact of its collapse on language, economics, space and identity. We also examine EU expansion, rising nationalism and the role of a resurgent Russia.
